

“For without the word of God
water is plain water and not a baptism.
But water joined with God’s word is a baptism,
that is, a grace-filled water of life.”

From Martin Luther’s Small Catechism, on Holy Baptism

Transfiguration of Our Lord Last Sunday After Epiphany

March 2, 2025

New Joy Lutheran Church & Preschool

Welcome, Pastor Amanda!

We are blessed by your presence among us today. This bulletin contains the outline and words for worship this morning. Please see the back pages of this bulletin for ministry announcements and additional welcome information about New Joy Lutheran Church.

Little children are always welcome in worship – even and especially when they’re a little noisy! We welcome children to worship God by toddling around, playing with toys, shaking tambourines, babbling, singing, and coming to the Lord’s Table. If little ones get too noisy during spoken parts of the service – the reading of Scripture, the sermon, or prayers – please try to quiet them or take them into the hallway for a moment to calm down. Thank you!

Our nursery is also available most Sundays for children aged 5 and under.

God’s promises are at the heart of our worship. God promises justice for the lowly, forgiveness for the sinner, hope for the despairing, and joy for the sorrowful. These promises are “the Good News of Jesus Christ,” fulfilled by Jesus’s birth as a vulnerable child, his works of liberation and grace among us, and his victory over sin, death, and injustice by his resurrection from the grave. In the songs and prayers, Scripture and preaching, you’ll hear of God’s promise for you personally, for society, for this world that God so loves.

Our worship style is patterned after centuries of tradition reaching back to some of the earliest Christian communities. Our service is structured yet also informal, shaped by tradition yet also new. We observe seasons that lift up various themes from the life of Jesus and the mission of the church. In our prayers we pray not just for ourselves but for the church; all of creation; our neighbors and our society; the sick and suffering; and, for the blessed departed. We pray seeking that God’s promises would come to us and through us to a world in need.

Holy Communion is a meal of Christ’s radical welcome, real presence, and complete forgiveness. All are welcome to receive the gift of Jesus’ body and blood in the bread and cup of Holy Communion. We use grape juice for communion, and gluten-free bread is available upon request. Not sure whether to receive communion, or how? Simply find the pastor in the communion line and ask.

Welcome. We are so glad you are with us today.

INTRODUCTION: Witnesses to the glory of God in the face of Jesus reflect that glory in the world. It was true for Moses. It was doubtless true for Peter, James, and John. We pray that it will be true of all of us who see God’s glory in the word and in the supper and who are being “transformed into the same image” by God’s Spirit.

APOSTOLIC GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

And also with you.

BAPTISMAL PROMISE

This baptismal litany is inspired by Scripture and by Martin Luther's explanations of Holy Baptism as found in his Small and Large Catechisms (SC and LC).

We are baptized into Christ Jesus:
into Christ's life, death, and resurrection.

ROMANS 6:1-11

We walk in newness of life!

Baptism is a rising up from grace-filled waters,
a bath of the new birth in the Holy Spirit,
according to God's mercy.

SC
TITUS 3:5

Baptism is water joined with God's word, God's command, God's name.

LC

And where God's name is,
there is life and salvation.

LC

We are baptized for one reason: to be saved.

LC

To be saved is nothing else than this:

to be delivered from sin, death, and the devil,
to enter into Christ's kingdom,
and to live with Christ forever.

LC

To live with Christ forever is to live here and now for the sake of the neighbor God gives us and for the sake of this world that God so loves.

LUKE 10:27
JOHN 3:16

Give us faith, O God,

to love our neighbors and to love our enemies.

LUKE 6:27-36

Give us faith, O God

to do good to those who hate us;

to bless those who curse us.

Give us faith, O God

to give to those who ask,

and to expect nothing in return.

Give us faith, O God

to do for others as we would have them do for us.

Give us faith, O God

for we are baptized into Christ Jesus;

we can endure and do all things through Christ who strengthens us.

PHILIPPIANS 4:10-14

Amen.

Pastor continues with words of invitation and promise; concluding:

For God's promises in baptism remain forever.
God's steadfast love endures forever.

LC
PSALM 136

Any who are seeking to be baptized or to publicly affirm their baptism are invited to come forward at this time, or to speak with Pastor following worship, to arrange for Baptism or Affirmation of Baptism at a future service. If you come forward at this time we will bless your desire to seek baptism or affirmation of baptism. We will pray for you now, and eagerly look forward to your baptism/affirmation of baptism day. We do not "re-baptize" people who have already been baptized, but instead affirm the promises God gives in baptism.

HEBREW BIBLE

Exodus 34:29-35

Moses' face shone with the reflected glory of God after he received the Ten Commandments on Mount Sinai. The sight caused the Israelites to be afraid, so Moses wore a veil to mask the radiance of God's glory, taking it off when he spoke directly with God.

²⁹ Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. ³⁰ When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹ But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. ³² Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. ³³ When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; ³⁴ but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, ³⁵ the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word.

Thanks be to God.

PSALMODY

Psalm 99

℟ Proclaim the greatness of the Lord; worship upon God's holy hill. (Ps. 99:9)

¹ The LORD is king; let the | people tremble.

The LORD is enthroned upon the cherubim; let | the earth shake.

² The LORD, | great in Zion,
is high a- | bove all peoples.

³ Let them confess God's name, which is | great and awesome;
God is the | Holy One.

⁴ O mighty king, lover of justice, you have established equity;
you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob. R

⁵ Proclaim the greatness of the LORD and fall down before God's footstool;
God is the Holy One.

⁶ Moses and Aaron among your priests, and Samuel among those who call upon your name, O LORD,

they called upon you, and you answered them,

⁷ you spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud;
they kept your testimonies and the decree that you gave them.

⁸ O LORD our God, you answered them indeed;
you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds.

⁹ Proclaim the greatness of the LORD and worship upon God's holy hill; for the LORD our God is the Holy One. R

EPISTLE

2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2

In his debates with the Corinthians, Paul contrasts the glory of Moses with the glory of Christ. The Israelites could not see Moses' face because of the veil. But in Christ we see the unveiled glory of God and are transformed into Christ's likeness.

¹² Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, ¹³ not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. ¹⁴ But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. ¹⁵ Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; ¹⁶ but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸ And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

^{4:1} Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. ² We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Luke 9:28-36 [37-43a]

The conversation about Jesus' suffering and death is enclosed in a dazzling foreshadowing of the resurrection. God affirms Jesus' identity, the disciples are stunned speechless, and Jesus resumes his mission with a demonstration of his power over evil.

The Holy Gospel, according to Saint Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁸ Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹ And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. ³⁰ Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. ³¹ They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³² Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him.

³³ Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he said. ³⁴ While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. ³⁵ Then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!” ³⁶ When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen. [

³⁷ On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. ³⁸ Just then a man from the crowd shouted, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. ³⁹ Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. ⁴⁰ I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.” ⁴¹ Jesus answered, “You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.” ⁴² While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. ^{43a} And all were astounded at the greatness of God.]

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.
